

Instructions for Applying to the Exercise Physiology Major from the Pre-Exercise Physiology Major

1. Complete the required coursework for the Pre-Exercise Physiology major achieving a “C” or better in each course and obtain an cumulative g.p.a. of 2.0 or higher.
2. Obtain a “Exercise Physiology Program (BS8122) Application” and complete the information accurately.
3. Submit the application and a current DARS report to your Faculty Advisor. Please Note: if the DARS report does not contain a grade for one of the required courses, you will need to submit a copy of your grades with the DARS to have the application processed. An official transcript is NOT necessary. You may print a copy from the Ohio University website- “My Grades”.
  - 3b. Your faculty advisor will sign off on the form.
  - 3c. The application will be returned to the student.
4. The student will submit the completed “Exercise Physiology Program (BS8122) Application” to the College of Health and Human Services (CHHS) Student Services Office (3rd floor Grover).
  - 4b. From the CHHS Student Services Office, the student will complete and submit a copy of the “Application for Update of Program(s)”.